Duration: 15 Days

Region: Delhi-Agra-Jaipur-Ajmer-Pushkar-Udaipur-Loni-Jodhpur-Manvar-Jaisalmer-Bikaner-Mandawa-Delhi

Season: December

Rajasthan, a princely state of India, is considered as the most colorful region, the exotic land of valiance and chivalry has an unusual diversity in all its forms-people, customs, culture, costumes, music, manners, dialects, and cuisine etc. It is the land of superlatives; everything here is breathtaking, beautiful, impressive and fascinating. It is endowed with amazing forts, magnificent palaces and havelies. The landscape is awe inspiring with lofty hills and shifting sand dunes. Aravalis, one of the oldest mountain ranges of the world run across the state. Towards the north-west is the great Thar Desert and the southern and the eastern part present a contrasting picture with dense forest and fertile tablelands. It is one state where you would like to come again and again.

The Itinerary:
